Zion Lutheran Church

The Divine Service

The Thirteenth Sunday after Trinity

Welcome

Practice singleness of heart, and a richness of the spirit [...] love your neighbor more than your own life [...] whatever experience comes your way, accept it as a blessing [...] give your neighbor a share of all you have, and do not call anything your own. If you and he participate together in things immortal, how much more so in things that are mortal? [...] Do not be one of those who stretch out their hands to take but draw back when the time comes for giving. [...] Day and night keep the day of judgement in mind. [...] Never hesitate to give, and when you are giving, do it without grumbling; you will soon find out who can be generous with his rewards. [...] And make confession of your own faults; you are not to come to prayer with a bad conscience. This is the way of Light.

St. Barnabas, Epistle of Barnabas, 19:2, 5, 8-12

August 25, 2024 ✠ 10:00 AM

We are very happy that you are here today!

At Zion, the bulletin and Lutheran Service Book (LSB) are both used to lead us through our worship. Below are some helpful tips:

The starting page number in the hymnal is listed in the bulletin on the top of the tab, i.e., LSB 184, which is found towards the front of the hymnal. P indicates sections spoken by the Pastor. C indicates responses by the Congregation and will be in bold print. All hymns are listed in the bulletin with the name of the hymn and page number, i.e., Thy Strong Word LSB 578. They are also shown on the Hymn board at the front of the church. The bold italic text on the tab of the bulletin shows when the service continues with the information on the page to the right.

At Zion we want families with children to feel at home.

First, please relax and enjoy your time here. Jesus knows that children tend to wiggle and squawk a bit, so please don't feel embarrassed by it. As we go, softly explain the Liturgy to your children, encouraging them to chime in on their parts: 'Amen! Lord have mercy! And with thy Spirit! I believe! Our Father!' All of that belongs to them too. If you and your child must leave, please hurry back. We want you and your children here very much. If you need a little help, just ask. There are lots of folks here who will lend you a hand. Please know that while you are caring for your children, the rest of us will be rejoicing in Jesus' words, "Let the little children come to me and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these" (Luke 18:16). Children's "Busy Bags" are located in the Narthex hallway for your convenience.

We at Zion Lutheran Church of Augsburg believe and confess along with the Holy Scriptures, that this bread and wine in the Sacrament of Holy Communion are truly the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, instituted by Christ Himself, for us Christians to eat and drink. The gifts of His physical body and blood are given in, with, and under the elements of bread and wine at the altar. Those who are communicant members of a Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod congregation are welcome to commune at this altar with us. Other guests wishing to join our confession and receive this Holy Sacrament are invited to meet with the Pastor for Catechesis before communing. Anyone not communing may still come forward, crossing their arms at the rail, to receive a blessing from the Pastor.

Introit

Psalm 74:1–2, 19b, 21b; antiphon: vv. 20a, 21a, 22a, 23a

- P Have regard for the covenant, | [O Lord];*
let not the downtrodden turn | back in shame.
- C Arise, O God, de- | fend your cause;
do not forget the clamor | of your foes.
- P O God, why do you cast us off for- | ever?*
- Why does your anger smoke against the sheep of your | pasture?
- C Remember your congre- | gation,
which you have pur- | chased of old,
- P which you have redeemed to be the tribe of your | heritage!*
- Remember Mount Zion, where | you have dwelt.
- C Do not forget the life of your poor for- | ever.
Let the poor and needy | praise your name.
- C Glory be to the Father and | to the Son
and to the Holy | Spirit;
as it was in the be- | ginning,*
is now, and will be forever. | Amen.
- P Have regard for the covenant, | [O Lord];*
let not the downtrodden turn | back in shame.
- C Arise, O God, de- | fend your cause;
do not forget the clamor | of your foes.

Collect of the Day

Almighty and everlasting God, give us an increase of faith, hope, and charity; and that we may obtain what You have promised, make us love what You have commanded; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Gradual

Psalm 77:14-15

- P You are the God who works wonders;
you have made known your might among the peoples.
- C You with your arm redeemed your people,
the children of Jacob and Joseph.
